Sango Showcase

It is with great excitement that we announce our upcoming Sango Showcase. This exciting night, March 29 at 6:00 p.m., is an opportunity for our Puppet Club and Drama Club to present what they have been working on all year, Jack and the Beanstalk. Also, on this evening, student artwork will be displayed.

YOUTH ART MONTH™

THE MONTH OF MARCH IS YOUTH ART MONTH. THE STUDENTS BELOW HAVE ARTWORK DISPLAYED AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY THROUGH THE MONTH OF MARCH. STOP BY AND SEE ARTWORK FROM STUDENTS ALL ACROSS OUR DISTRICT. WE HAVE SO MANY TALENTED STUDENTS.

Important INFORMATION

Volunteer Information

We know lots of you are eager to come into the school and volunteer, and we are excited to have you. Please be aware of the following requirements:

- Each school needs to provide all volunteers with a copy of the CMCSS Volunteer Code of Ethics and Volunteer Policy.
- Each volunteer needs to complete the CMCSS Volunteer Agreement Form.
 - The school should keep these agreements on file. A volunteer does not have to sign an agreement each time they volunteer.

: Important INFORMATION :

We apologize to the students below for neglecting to include their recognition of Sango Superstars for the month of January in Sango Scene. It was a complete oversight. Congratulations to these students and we are proud of you for demonstrating your Sango

PRIDE!

Sango Superstars

KINDERGARTEN

Teagan Meisch

Teagan is such a great example of Sango PRIDE! She has a positive attitude every day and she is always eager to learn. She is a wonderful helper in the classroom as well as a kind and thoughtful friend to others. She is a true role model to her peers. We are lucky to have her in class!

FIRST GRADE

John Marc Venczel

John Marc is a classroom leader. He always participates and continually strives for excellence. John Marc embodies what it means to be a Sango Panther.

SECOND GRADE

Renison Baggett

Renison is an amazing young man who is always ready to lend a helping hand to his classmates. He is respectful of those around him and truly loves his school and everyone in it. Renison exhibits Sango PRIDE in everything he says and does.

THIRD GRADE

Emma Mipshew

Emma exemplifies Sango PRIDE consistently each and every day. Her integrity does not go unnoticed by her teachers. Emma's peers can always count on her to be a helping hand. Her hard work and determination has certainly paid off.

FOURTH GRADE

Bella Taylor

Bella Taylor is one of the kindest, most respectful people you could ever meet! She is always so helpful to others, whether it is helping another student with technology issues or helping the teacher keep the classroom nice and clean. She has kind words and gentle actions. Bella shows her Sango PRIDE every day!

FIFTH GRADE

Laila Johnson

Laila is a kind and respectful student who has recently shown strong determination. When faced with a challenge, she has worked extremely hard over the last few weeks at improving in a specific area of need. I am proud of her and can tell that her extra effort has enabled her to improve in both her academics and self-confidence!
